Insulet's use of your personal data

Sharing your personal data and third country data transfers

We share personal data with our service providers that act on our behalf, and with the members of the Insulet group of companies which use your personal data in accordance with this notice. We may also share your personal data with other third parties where explicitly required by law.

Our use and sharing of your personal data may involve the transfer, storage and processing of your personal data in a country outside the United Kingdom. Some of these countries are regarded as not providing the same level of protection as the United Kingdom, in which case we put in place safeguards (including standard data protection clauses, and additional clauses thereto, as approved or issued by the UK Information Commissioner's Office) to ensure an appropriate level of protection for your personal data.

Retention of your personal data

We retain your personal data for as long as you are a customer of Insulet, and for a period after you are no longer a customer if necessary to meet our legal obligations, including regulatory obligations related to medical devices and pharmaceutical products, and to exercise and defend our rights.

Your privacy rights

You have certain rights regarding the personal data we hold about you. You have the right to access a copy of your personal data, in certain circumstances the right to correct or delete the personal data we hold about you, to restrict our use of your personal data, to receive a portable copy of your personal data in a reusable electronic format, or to object to our use of your personal data. Moreover, you can withdraw your consent to our processing of your personal data at any time. In certain situations, we may not be in a position to fully comply with your request. In that case we will inform you about this. If you would like to discuss or exercise any of these rights, please contact us using the contact information set out below.

Contact Us

If you have questions or concerns regarding the way in which your personal data is used, please contact our Data Protection Officer at dataprivacy@insulet.com. If you believe that we have not been able to assist with your complaint or concern, you may contact the Information Commissioner's Office or submit a complaint to them.

For more information about how we use personal data, please see our privacy notice at <https://www.omnipod.com/en-gb/privacy>.
